There's a magical Tale up the Alver of Time Where the softest elee are playing : here's a cloudless sky and a tippical clime, And a roug as asyect as a vesper chimo, And the ferve with the roxes are straying. And the name of the Isla is the Long Age, And we bury our treasures there ! There are brown of beauty and become of energ, There are Leaps of dust, but we loved them so,

There die trinkets and treeses of hair. There are fragments of song that nobidy sings,
And a part of an infant's prayer;
There's a lute unawept, and a harp without strings. There are treken vowe and pieces of rings And garments that she used to year.

There are hands that wave, when the felry chore lly the mirges is lifted in air; And we comedines hear through the furt alentro Sweet voices we heard in the days gone before, When the wind down the river in fair.

That By-Law was carried by the people and finally adopted by the Connoil. We are, therefore, placed in rather an awkward position, and for this reason; heretofore each Ward has had its own representative, and each Councilman has endeavored to please his particular Ward. We are therefore unable to judge how these men will net when elected for the whole Township, and I fear, from what I can learn, that our previous at least to considerable extent. How many candidates will offer themselves for the suffragas of the electors, it is impossible just now to foretell; but I hope, in their excitement, the electors will not forget what is due to themselves and the credit of the monicipality, by decling persons totally unqualified, merely for the sake of opposition.

During the past two years our County rates have gonalderably increased upon us, - but whether this is also the case elsewhere, I am not in a position to ery. At any rate, w should relect man qualified to defend our rights and interests at the County Council, and also possessing good judgement for the management of our own local affairs. Most of the pretent Council, and perhaps I should say all, nave given very good satisfaction : but I make no exaples in stating the fact, that we have other men I should like to see there equally as well. But we all have our notions, and mine may be mere laney.

Sta-I see in your issue of the seventh inst, a letter over the signature of D. Sutherland, Esq., written, I think, solely with the object of placing me in a false position. I say solely with this object, as he contents himself with merely attempting to reduce me to his own level, and strives neither to defend nor paliate his own conduct. I might pass by his letter and leave an enlightened public to judge whether my having acted in 100:00 the original. Mr. Sutherland taxes your correspondent, baring two screws, and said to be invented by "Vox Porult" with misrepresention, is he the Emperor of the French is about to be free from a like charge? We shall see .- tried Were I inclined to be severe, I might impute to Mr. Sutherland a falsehood of the worst character. His implied charge against but very false to the spirit. Mark how plain a tale shall put him down. It is true that the Roll was first placed in the hands of Mr Wallis and myself, and we fixed a basis for its equalization, but not the one in which the Roll was revised, but one based on the stien actual value of real property, with this exception that all persons not rated on the Roll for more than two hundred dollars should remain rated at that amount. DRAS SIR-A lutter appeared in your paper of the 7th lostent, fluding fault with all and singular of the project Councillors of this Township; but with the exception of the files: lous charge of a hearersy against Mr. Harrison when, I say, the question is a question of life and a round-about story about Mr Macklom, it amounts to fothing at all. The very admission that nothing can be said against their private character, and also the fact that the three men above the Ridges, at least, are honest men, outweighs all he oan say sgainst them. Mr. Elitor, honest men, in my opinion, are hard to be found-that is, honort public inon, and Whitthou fear the person of the powerful and lay church will have nothing to gain and much to loose by changing honest men, merely for the eake of change. Your correspondent, for instance, admits Mr Randall, as well as Mr Ironsides, to be liencet, and also to possess another very essential qualification-good judgement.

> What else does he mant? With regard to his story about the County Council proceedings, he is altogether astrayparticularly with reference to our Roure : for have been assured by members of the County a resolution adopted on the subject. In this, your correspondent has endeavored to lead the sion that he must be desirons of municipal honors himself, for I our observe no other reason for the penning of such a letter. Next time he attempts to lecture others, I hope he will have more regard for truth. Since the letter of your correspondent appear. ed I had access to the proceedings of the Counby Council, as published in their minutes, and negroes concerted a plan to take possession from these documents I learn that in relation to our County taxes, we compare very favorably with surrounding Townships. Considerable ncrease was made on the County rate; but our taxes was not raised as much, by nearly one-half, as upon some other municipalities .-I think, therefore, out Reeve, and Deputy must have been very diligent in look after our srined with clubs, came to the rescue of their affairs at head quarters. If your correspondent fellows. A number of whites were knocked cannot specify a more definite charge, he had better " hang his harp upon the willo v." Yours, &C.,

Our report for Flour during the past week it very nominal, though the cales that have been made are at alightly advanced rates. to provisions, especially Pork and Butter, there has been a fair butiness done, Advices from New York are decidedly botter in reference to monetary matters, while the quotations for all decoriptions of projuce are downwards, and almost entirely nominal. There | HAISINS, chas been nothing done in packing hore, dealers declining to operate at present rates. Advices from the pork packing cities of the Western States, evince a similar feeling, with a wide difference between the views of buyers and callers. We incline to the opinion that there will be an advance on present rates, before a heavy business is done. The tightuess of menoy no doubt has a depressing tendency .on this as well as any other article to be speculated in. We may here observe, that to any of our conatiments wishing to pack for spring sale, we shall be glad to give them the benefit of our arrangement, with the inspectors for packing. YOUNG MEN. There is an ovil liabit sometimes indulged in by boye, in colitude, often growing up with Them injo manhood; and which, if not reformed by thefe in due time, not only begels serious obstacles to matrimo dai happiness, but gives to a series of prolimeted; lasidimis, and devactating affections. Few of those who give way to this permicious practice are aware of the consequences, until they faid the narvous aystem shanered, feel strange and uncomfortable feelings, and vague fears in the mind. Self-abuse is one of the most formidable ene-

It destroys the nervous system rapelly, wastes away the energies of life, causes mental deraugement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, bustness, and all earthly happiness, and leaves he sofferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself.
